1 This matter came on for trial on March 26, 2015. Present was the Plaintiff, Peter H. Arkison.
2 Neither the Defendant nor anyone else responded for the Defendant when the Court asked if the 3 Defendant or anyone on her behalf was present. The Court reviewed the record and found that the 4 Court had jurisdiction and that the Defendant, Ruth J. Edwards had been given sufficient notice of 5 the hearing.

6 The Court considered the presentations and offers of proof by the Plaintiff. The Court being 7 fully advised in the premises and having jurisdiction,

8 IT IS ORDERED that the Court adopts and incorporates its oral remarks as its Findings of 9 Fact and Conclusions of Law.

10 IT IS ORDERED that the Trustee's Objection to Claim 18 filed by Ruth J. Edwards is 11 sustained; the claim is DISALLOWED in its entirety.
